July
2019

Hello Brothers and Sisters in Christ

Let me start by shouting HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

I gave my first message as a pastor at Doggett Chapel on July 1, 2018. As no one gave me ugly looks or ran me out of the building, I followed up with the same sermon delivered at Fayetteville UMC. It seems like forever ago, but in some ways almost like it was only yesterday.

Through the year I have been here, I have had an opportunity to get to know you, and you have had the opportunity to get to know me a little as well. As you get to know me better and better, your respect and admiration for Amy will no doubt be through the roof. Without her support, and God's hand I would have never had the courage to be your pastor.

God has blessed Amy and I with two churches that make my job easier than most pastors have it. The outpouring of love and support for us both has been overwhelming at times, and for that we are both eternally thankful to you all.

This year has seen the birth or reimagining of a new ministry. We started with one meal served our first time and have grown it to around 30 meals served and another 30 taken to those who don't get out very often. I thank you all for not losing the shine in your eye after the disappointment of our first try. We also have the beginnings of a clothing ministry starting next month! What an exciting time to be a United Methodist!

I urge you all to look deep inside yourself and listen for that still, small voice to see what God is calling you to do. We are only getting started.

May God bless you all

Pastor Rick

Baptist Church

Due to the holiday this month prayer for our nation will be on
Thursday, July 11 with a light lunch.
Everyone is welcome to attend on any month.
It begins at noon.

Amy and I would like to thank everyone for coming to what we hope will be the first of many, "Picnic at the Parsonage". Even though the rain came, we were blessed with ample room inside and on the porch for everyone to enjoy some much needed Christian fellowship.
